How do you peel a banana? From the top? From the bottom? A different way? I would argue... it doesn't matter! Who cares! Everyone shares the same goal of getting to the banana, how you get it is irrelevant! It doesn't matter if a governing body forbids one way, you can still achieve it by finding your own way! Just because 83% open from the top... Does that mean we should ridicule the 15% who open it from the bottom? What is the top and what is the bottom is subjective in itself!

Educators should respect how others teach PE, we all share the same goals! There is more than one way to achieve that goal. We need to acknowledge that!
